Good Will

Central's glee club and orchestra are shown below as they made a good will broadcast to our Latin American neighbors. Today, there exists more than ever, a general feeling of good will towards those who

THE CENTRAL TRIPLET

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
TOLEDO, OHIO

F O R E W O R D

In the composition and publication of this yearbook, we have endeavored not only to trace accurately the events of our last year at Central, but also to show by word and picture the true Catholic and American spirit which prevails at Central.

With the generous and unselfish aid of our faculty we feel sure that all the classes now at Central and those yet to come will benefit as we have, spiritually, socially, and intellectually.

As we say our last goodbyes, we keep this thought in mind:

"The 'luck' that we believe in
Is that which comes with work,
And no one ever finds it
Who's content to wish and shirk.

The men the world calls 'lucky'
Will tell you every one,
That success comes not with wishing
But by hard work bravely done."

STATE

Standing out as a shining light, the dome of the Capitol symbolizes the inalienable rights of man. The Capitol is the seat of our democracy, the kind of government where true freedom can exist. As eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, let us strive for its preservation.

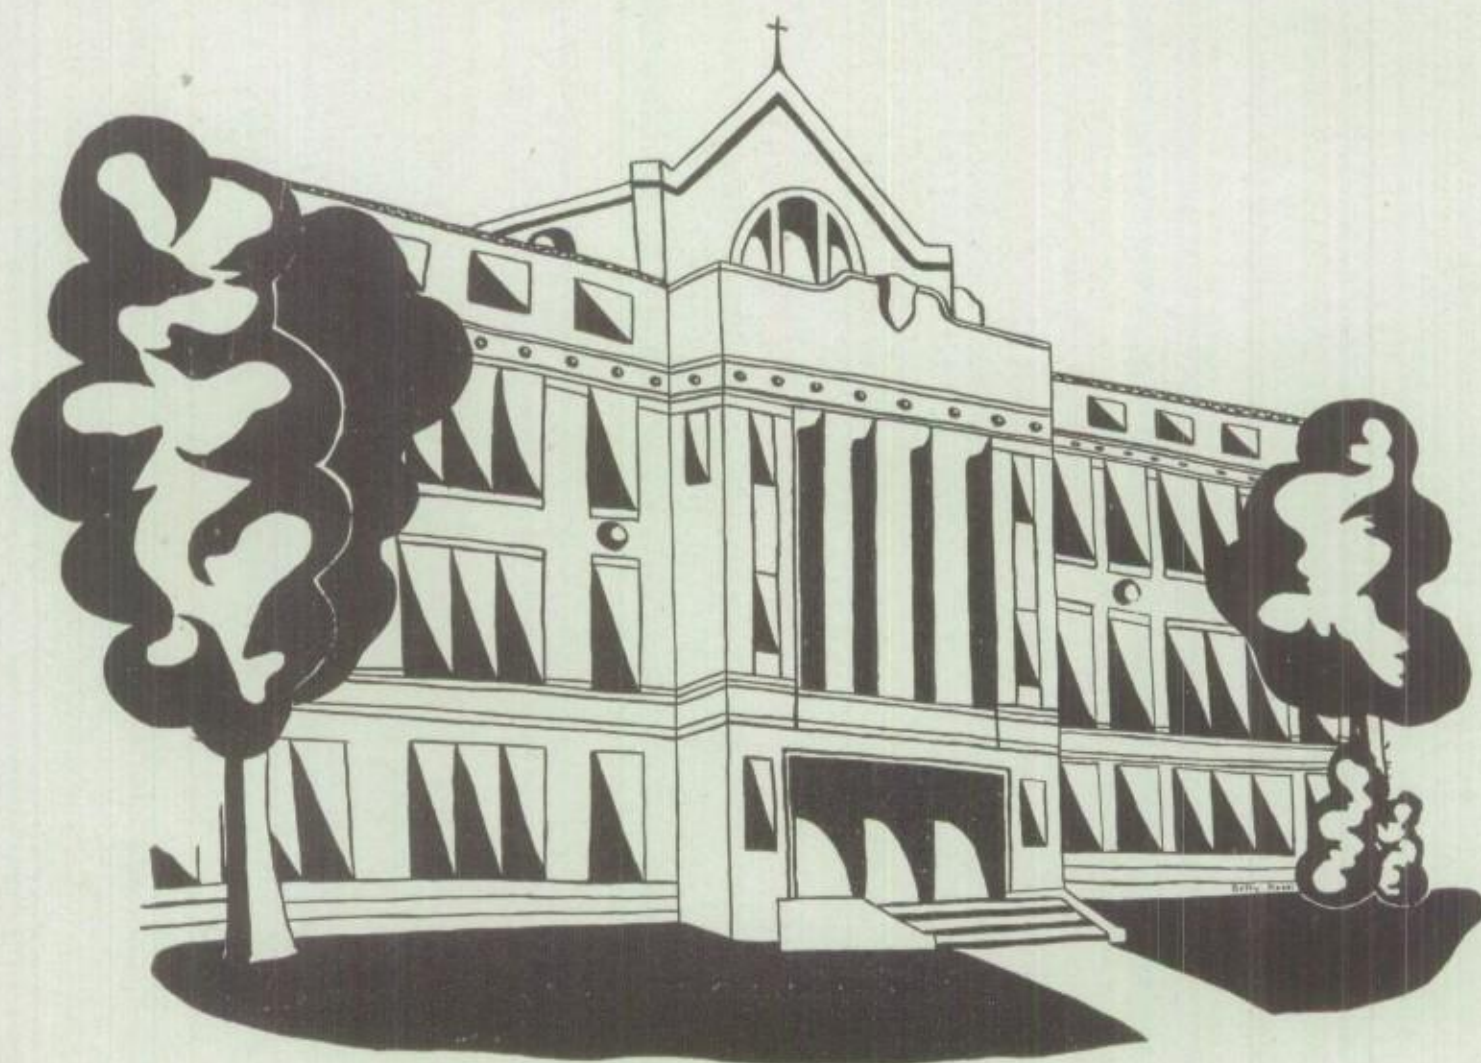

True democracy is based upon the observance of the laws of God. The Catholic Church, founded by Christ is the custodian of all democratic principles. Therefore, fidelity to her is fidelity to country.

CHURCH

SCHOOL

The school is one of the most important branches of our democracy. Its purpose is to train the young minds of America to carry on the ideals of the noble men who founded our nation, and also to prepare them to overcome the evil foes which threaten to extinguish the light of Christian education.

DEDICATION ❖ ❖ ❖

The young men and women who are graduating from high school this year are going into a world that is filled with confusion and strife. The future is uncertain because men and nations have failed to observe the eternal laws of Christ and His teaching.

With the hope of bringing the world back to God, our Catholic graduates will strive to defend and preserve all that is good and noble in our country. This is true patriotism. This, their Catholic training has taught them to do.

Therefore, we feel certain that they will play an important part in the ultimate material and moral victory of our nation.

It is to these young men and women, the graduates and former students of Central Catholic High School, who are and who will be serving their nation in preserving all that is worth while, that this book is gratefully dedicated.

On June 4, 1910, the Most Reverend Bishop, Karl J. Alter, D.D., LL.D., the third Bishop of Toledo, was ordained. His first appointment after entering the priesthood was that of administrator of St. Mary's Parish in Leipsic, Ohio.

After organizing the Diocesan Charities, when he returned to Toledo in 1914, he took charge of St. Anthony's Orphanage.

He was consecrated Bishop on June 17, 1931, in St. Francis de Sales Cathedral. Since that time he has done much to further the growth of the Church and standards of Catholic education in the Diocese.

In Memoriam

It was with profound sadness that the students and faculty of Central Catholic High School, together with hundreds of Toledo citizens, received news of the sudden death of Sister Mary Rose, R.S.M., mathematics instructor and former superintendent of Mercy Hospital, on January 1, 1942.

Those who associated with Sister Mary Rose loved her for her kindness, loyalty, fine disposition, and indefatigable zeal in the development of Catholic education and principles. Her untiring efforts in behalf of students and friends won for her undying admiration.

Having completed her mission on this earth, Sister Mary Rose enters her eternal home, but she will long live in the minds and hearts of her students, who will always remember her as a kind and understanding friend and teacher.

Sister Mary Rose

In Memoriam

It has become a tradition at Central to dedicate a page of The Centripetal to the deceased faculty members and students with the hope that the present student body will offer an occasional prayer for those of Central who have gone before into eternity.

Jeanne Scott

This year death claimed one from among the Central students' file, taking a Junior, Jeanne Scott, on Sunday evening, March 15.

Jeanne received her elementary education in Rosary Cathedral School and entered Central in 1939. During her two and a half years at Central she actively participated in the Guard of Honor and Eucharistic Our Lady Committee.

We, her friends, will long remember Jeanne's cheerful spirit and will not forget her in our prayers.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1942

O OUR four years of successful, happy high school life, we seniors bid adieu. We pass through Central's portals for the last time with many happy memories and few regrets.

This year's senior class has established an enviable record which may well serve as a goal for future senior classes. The Rev. John L. Harrington officially assumed the responsibilities as Principal of Central this year, enlisting the aid of the seniors to support him and to help lighten his burden.

We have undertaken and carried out the various Senior projects gladly and with alacrity. The Centric, The Centripetal, the excellent presentations of "The Ghost of the Air" and "The Pirates of Penzance," the election of officers, the ticket campaigns—all have helped to make our senior year a success.

We mark the end of four years of social life—years of happy companionship and of training under excellent instructors—years in which school has occupied a primary position in our lives. And now, we are prepared to embark upon a new phase of life.

And so with our hearts instilled with the will to win and with the principles of gentleness and justice, we shall strive to gain greater glory for God and our Alma Mater.

THE THREE hundred and thirty-five Juniors have successfully completed their third year at Central Catholic High School. Wholehearted co-operation marked their participation in all school activities.

Since their enrollment in the fall they have been outstanding in everything they undertook. Many members did excellent work in the Glee Club, Band and Orchestra. In the field of sports they were always conspicuous by their presence on the gridiron, basketball floor, baseball diamond, bowling alleys, tennis courts and golf links.

So, we the Juniors, are confident that the Seniors of next year will be just as successful as they were as Juniors.

Queen of May

THE FLOWERS' VIGIL

We've waited, oh, so long for you
To come to us this day.

The gleaming sun shines on us
And steals our life away.

To us you are from heaven sent
Our delicate buds to spray,
God gave you powers, wondrous
Our tiny lives to sway.

Miss April, you have tarried long
Now, really don't you think?
We tulips hold our cup-like lips
In longing for a drink.

—Patricia Stout.

MARY'S SACRIFICE

Christ died, bleeding
On the Cross of Calvary,
For man.
His whole life of sacrifice
Was ended there.
His mother stood
Beneath the Cross
Strange that our great gain
Was her great loss.

—Jtanne Hochanadel.

MARY

Rosy dimpled cheeks and fingers,
Eyes of clearest blue.
Little velvet curling ringlets,
Sandled feet all wet with dew.
Baby Mary!

Tired arms that hold an Infant,
Lips that form sweet lullabies.
Words of kindness to the shepherds,
Love, devotion, in her eyes,
Mother Mary!

—Victoria Skoropinski, '42.

PRAYER TO MARY IMMACULATE

Give us strength, dear Mother,
Now that strife has reached our shores,
Give us courage, faith and charity.
As the swell of battle roars.
Since there are none, dear Mother,
Who your sweetness can withstand,
We beg you to pray to Jesus for us,
To bring peace to our beloved land.
War is declared as we honor you today.
Hail, Mary Immaculate
Patron of the U. S. A.

—Marilyn Drouillard.

LITTLE BLUE LOCKER

Little blue locker on the first floor hall,
Shut by seniors to be opened no more,
Willingly catching the dust that may fall,
Little blue locker on the first floor hall.
Did you learn to love the senior lore
To the tune of the clatter of your bright little door?
Little blue locker on the first floor hall,
Shut by seniors to be opened no more.

—Rose Marie Sirian.

THE RETURN

When birds begin to sing sweet tunes,
And sun rays golden the sandy dunes,
When tiny stems and buds appear,
And glisten tear-wet crystals, clear,
Spring is here.

When the great wide world looks its best,
And is so richly, cheerfully drest,
When the early sun reflects the dew,
And surroundings to us are born anew,
Spring is here.

OUR PLEA

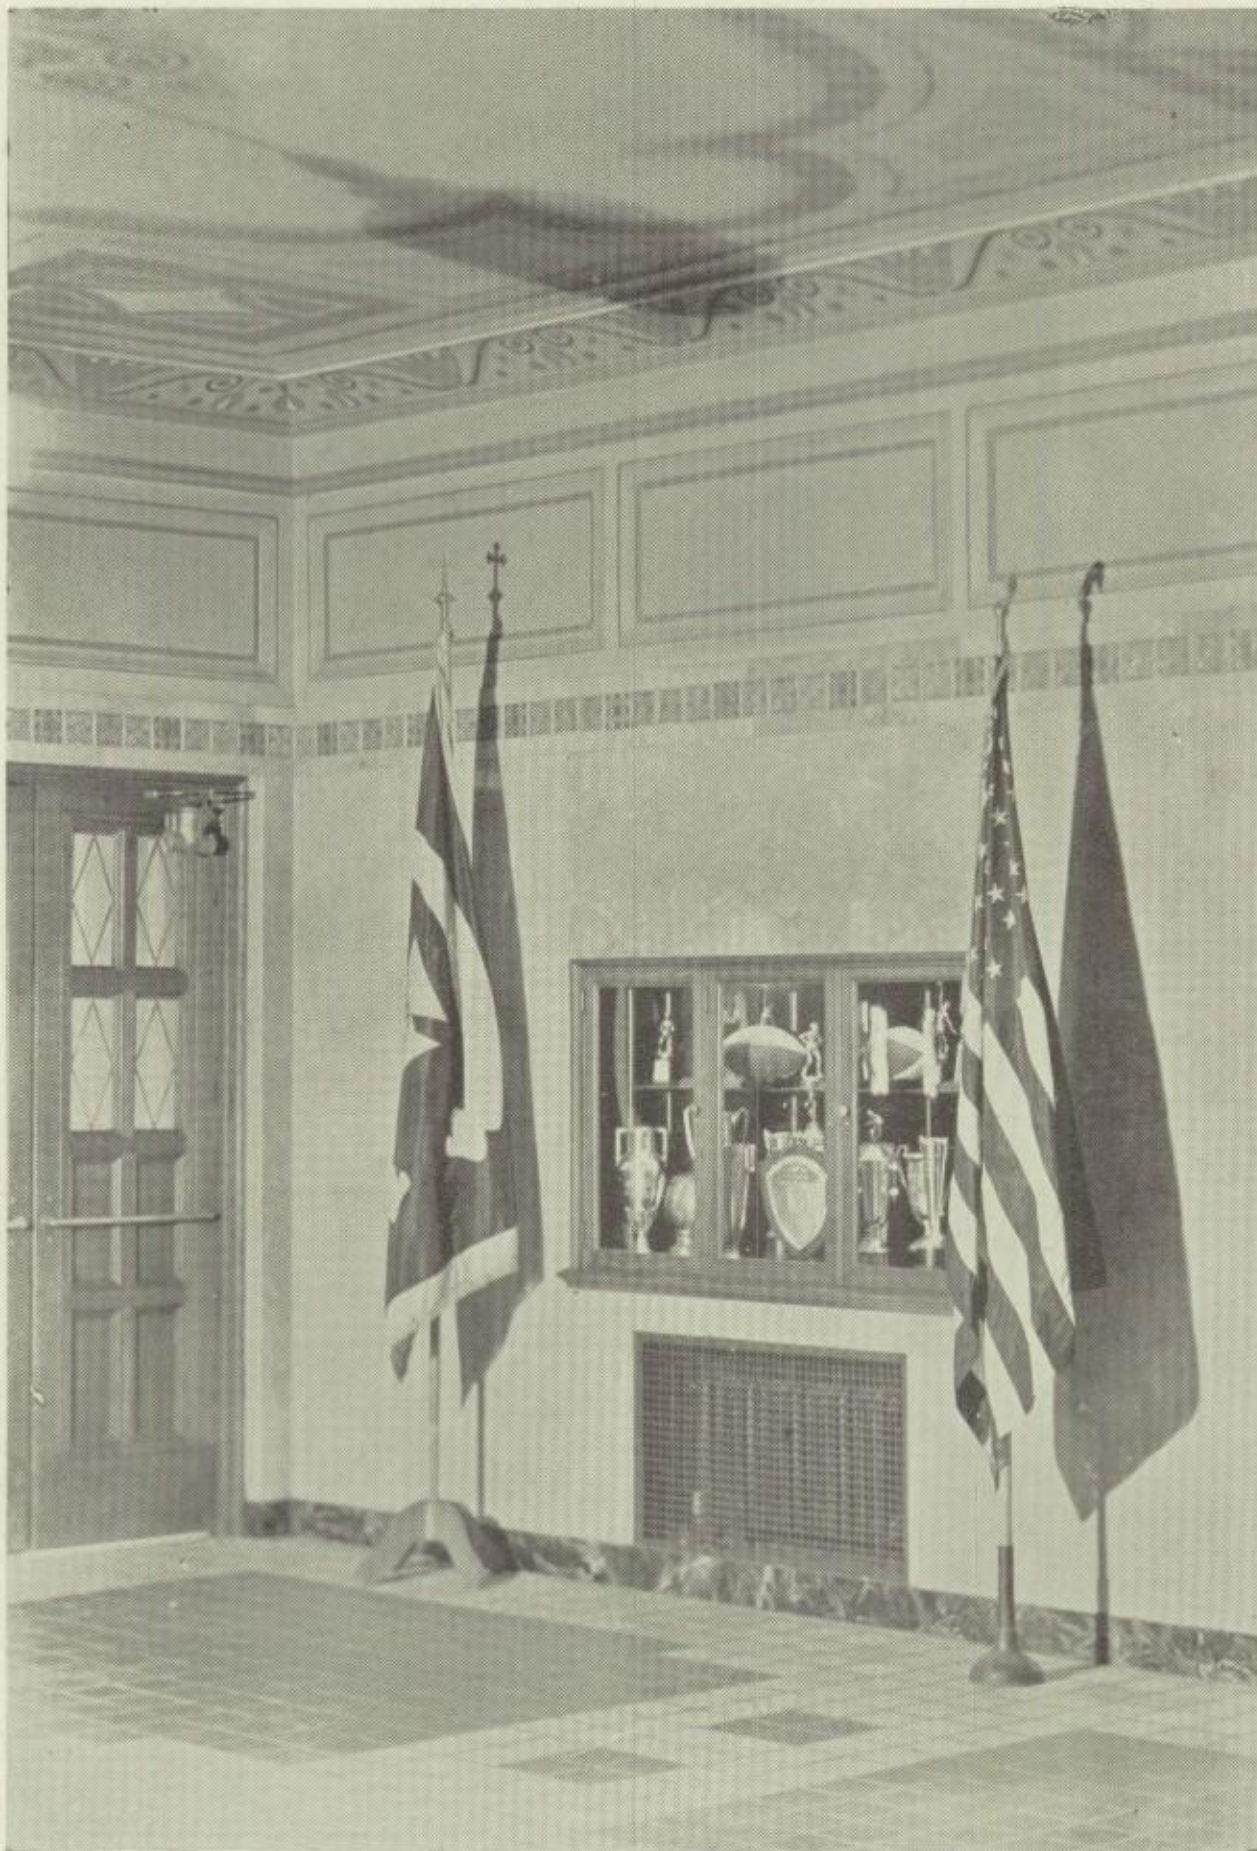

"There is no God" is all they
Are teaching,

"Do for Defense" is all they
Are preaching.

"God, Save our Nation" is all we
Are pleading.

—Dolores Mattlin, '42.

RECALLING the many activities of the Sophomores, we can look back upon them with great satisfaction.

The Sophomore class enrolls 238 boys and 156 girls constituting eleven Sophomore conference rooms.

The Sophomores proved outstanding in the various fields of sports as they were well represented on the football squad and on the basketball team. They also made an excellent showing on the Honor Roll and were able to display their dramatic ability in the operetta which is undertaken by the students each year. Members of their class were prominent in scholastic work and participated in all school activities, including the band and orchestra.

AUSTIN STREET STAIRWAY

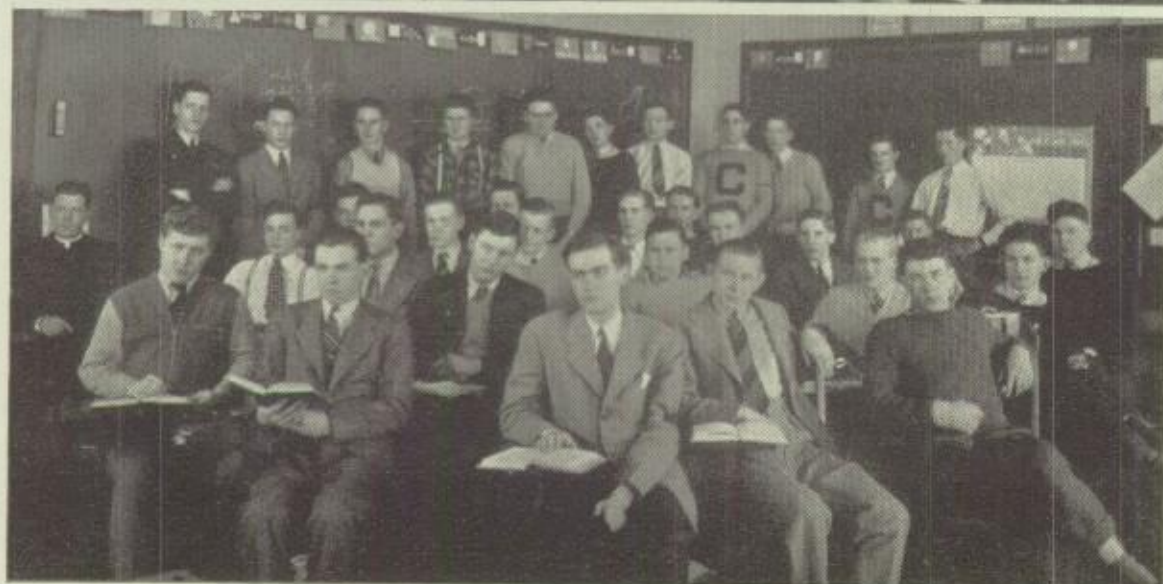

CHAPEL OF CHRIST THE KING

Religion Department

These girls, listening so attentively, are in the senior religion class of Room 106. The Rev. Kenneth A. Hans is the instructor.

Pausing between their theological pursuits, the senior boys are shown with their teacher, the Rev. John Kofflin. They are in Room 313.

"The proper and immediate end of Christian education is to cooperate with divine grace in forming the true and perfect Christian; that is, to form Christ Himself, in those regenerated by Baptism." To instill Christian principles and thus prepare the students for eternal life is, therefore, the aim of the teaching of Religion.

Many of the Religion classes engaged in various extra activities, such as presenting skits, making booklets and posters. The Seniors made a detailed study of the Sacrament of Matrimony. On one day of each week the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors received instructions from the Rev. John L. Harrington.

The Senior religion classes were again under the direction of the following Toledo priests: The Rev. Gerald W. E. Dunne, Rev. James McGowan, Rev. Joseph D. Shenk, Rev. John Radlinski, Rev. John Kofflin, Rev. Kenneth Hans, Rev. Arthur T. Schmit, and the Rev. Robert Curtis. The Senior religion book is based on the defense of the fundamentals of the Catholic Church.

Junior religion classes studied the Catholic Church, outlining the study of the lives of the saints and of the apostles.

The Sophomores studied the Mass and the Means of Grace. As a sideline activity, several groups made Mass charts and booklets.

The Freshmen classes studied the Commandments of God and of the Church. They also made posters showing the importance of penance and self-denial during Lent.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

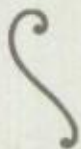

MR. JOSEPH SAINTON

Central is fortunate in having at the head of its music department, Mr. Joseph Sainton, under whose personal direction are the band, orchestra, and glee club.

Mr. Sainton is prominent in the musical circles of New York, Minneapolis, and Toledo, and at one time was director of the Toledo Philharmonic Orchestra.

Sr. M. Camillus, O. S. F., is faculty moderator of the entire music department.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club, a regular curricular activity and an important division of the Music Department, consists of eighty-five members, having as its purpose the development of the singing voice and of music appreciation.

The Glee Club gave a splendid presentation of the Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, "The Pirates of Penzance."

Another outstanding project undertaken by this group was the recording of Christmas hymns that were broadcasted to the Latin American countries.

The purpose of this broadcast was "to promote good will and, in particular, to let our Latin-American neighbors learn something about Catholic educational institutions in our country."

The Glee Club is under the direction of Mr. Joseph Sainton and the supervision of Sr. M. Camillus, O. S. F., which accounts for the splendid work accomplished by this group.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra takes time out for a picture.

The Orchestra, one of the very active groups of the school, consists of 27 members. The instruments comprising the orchestra are: seven first violins, four second violins, two cellos, one alto saxophone, two bass viols, three clarinets, three cornets, two trombones, two drums, and a piano.

Various programs at the assemblies throughout the school year, have been presented with the cooperation of the orchestra and glee club.

Not to mention their role in the spring operetta, they also contributed greatly to the success of the senior play, "The Ghost of the Air."

BAND

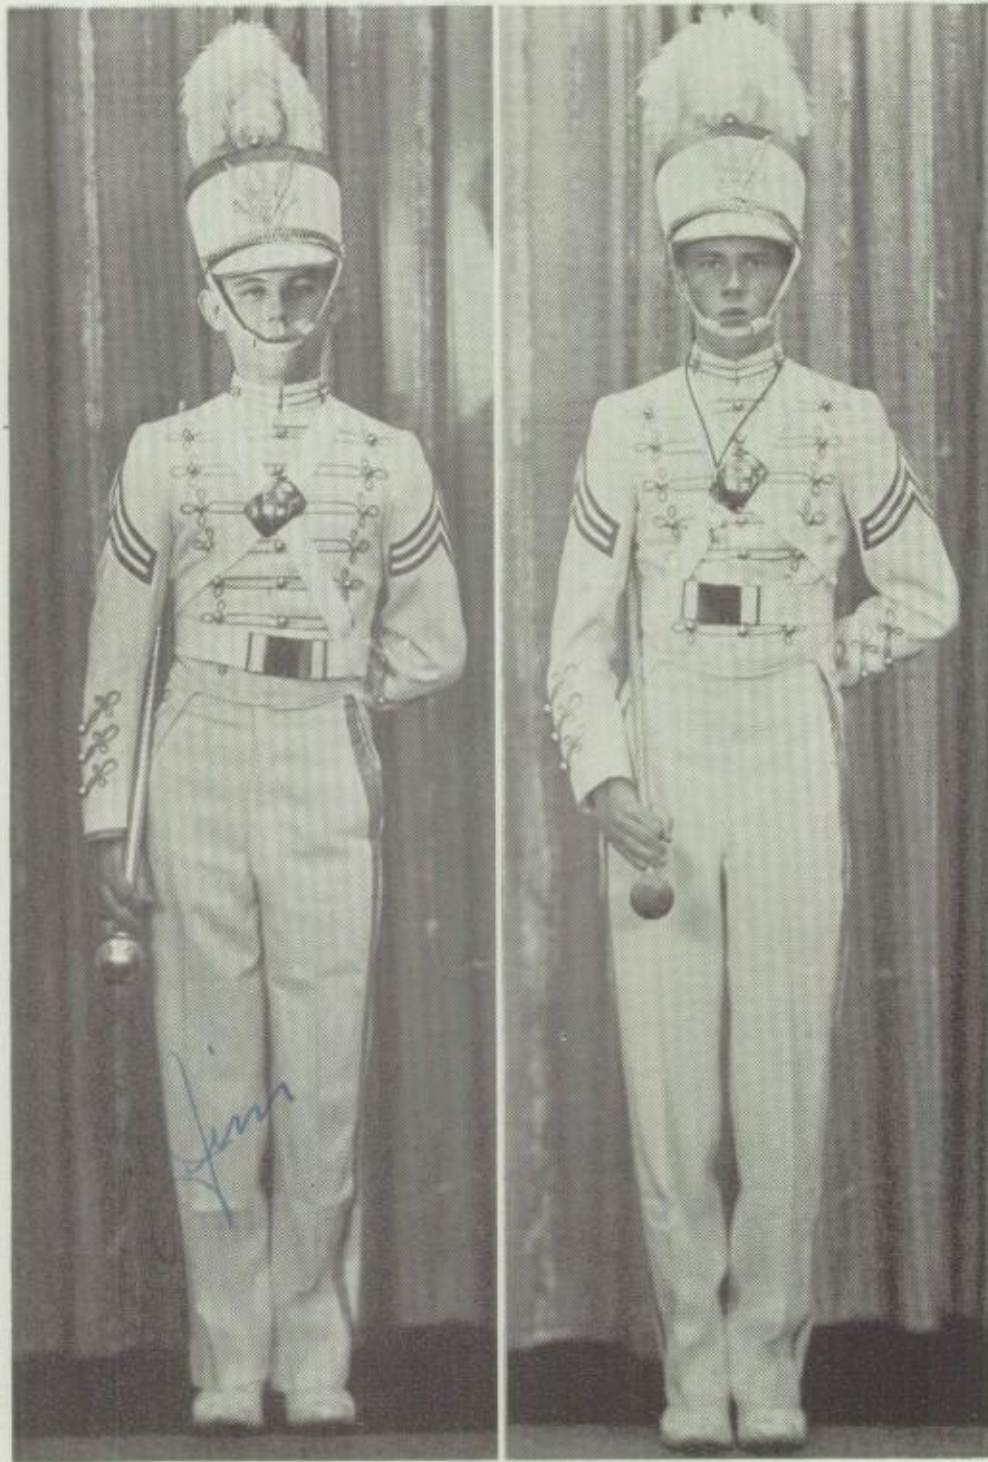

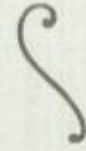

About fifty gaily clad musicians of Central's band added color and zest not only to the assemblies but also to the football games throughout the season.

Much of the credit for the spectacular exhibitions must be given to Mr. Sainton, director of the band, and Mr. Francis J. Menichetti, drillmaster. Mr. Menichetti devised many intricate marching formations which were beautifully executed and which proved very interesting to the spectators.

The Band prepares to strike up a rousing march under the capable direction of its two drum majors, James Burdette and Francis O'Connor.

DRUM MAJORS

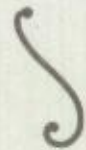

James Burdette

Francis O'Connor

Twirling their batons and strutting to the rhythmic beat of the drums, Francis O'Connor and James Burdette, assistant drum major, have proudly directed Central's band throughout the past football season.

Their stellar handling of the silver batons has marked Central's fine musical personnel as unique, and we are justly proud of them.

Dramatic Club

The Senior Class Play, "Ghost of the Air" and the Musical Comedy "The Pirates of Penzance" have again given the members of the Dramatic Club, Glee Club, and Orchestra an opportunity to show their outstanding ability.

James Morrissey, Student General Chairman, was in charge of the executive work in connection with the two productions.

Mr. Eugene L. Miller directed the "Ghost of the Air" and Mr. Joseph Sainton, "The Pirates of Penzance."

"THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE"

Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Pirates of Penzance" was presented on the evenings of April 17, 18, and 19.

The story tells of Frederic, who when a boy, was to have been apprenticed to a pilot until his twenty-first year, these being his father's orders; but his nursemaid Ruth, through a misunderstanding, bound him out to one of the Pirates of Penzance.

When preparing to leave the pirates, Frederic is shown a paper stating that he was born on February twenty-ninth and that he has had but five birthdays. His strong sense of duty leads him back to the pirates, only to find that they are English noblemen and are to receive a pardon. The pardon also releases him from his duty and frees him to marry Mabel, one of General Stanley's daughters.

"GHOST OF THE AIR"

The mystery comedy, by Robert St. Clair, entitled "Ghost of the Air" was presented by the Senior Class on the nights of January 30, 31 and February 1.

The play centers around an egotistical young radio announcer who is murdered in a broadcasting station. Everyone employed at the radio station is accused in turn and the master detective finds it difficult to solve the crime.

The play, by popular acclaim, has been regarded as one of the best ever put on by Central. This was evident by the unprecedented sale of tickets.

The Boys' Art Department, under the supervision of Mr. Ludwig E. Thuel, has become a highly practical and creative course in architecture and designing.

Under Mr. Thuel's management, students taking this course have received a valuable understanding of the various phases of industrial arts. Original design by the students themselves is stressed as the most valuable and essential work in this field. During the past years this department has increased in size and has become one of the most outstanding courses at Central.

Excellent floor plans and elevations of large homes in many styles were designed by William O'Connell, Robert O'Brien, Bernard Hickey, John Desmond, James Mack, Charles Kramer, William Dutridge, Robert Kolhoff, Norman Miller, and Rollin Nusbaum.

This department offers courses in:

Thy light alone, like mist o'er mountain driven,
Or music by the night wind sent
Thro' strings of some still instrument,
Or moonlight on some midnight stream,
Gives Grace and Truth to life's unquiet dream.*
— Shelley

The aim of the Girls' Art Department is to develop in the student appreciation for the beautiful and the power to produce beautiful things—a fine accomplishment for girls.

The first-year art students are offered courses in design, color theory, free hand drawing with water colors and lettering.

Sophomore art students receive a course in design, color theory, posters, pen and ink drawing, historic ornaments and liturgical needlework.

Juniors and seniors are engaged in many phases of work including advanced designing, interior decorating, costume designing, free hand drawing in pastel and water color, stage setting and theatrical make-up.

In the second semester the seniors are offered a course, under the direction of Mr. L. E. Thuel, in modeling and construction work. Great talent has been shown, and many beautiful pieces of art have been produced.

All photography work for the Centripetal is managed by senior art students.

Sister Mary Hilda, S.N.D., art instructor, is in charge of the three double-period classes.

English Department

1. A very attentive senior public speaking class picks up a few fine points of speech from Mr. John Bagdonas.

2. The girls of Sister Mary Magdalene's senior English class are absorbing facts about famous authors.

3. A class of bright looking senior girls look up from their literature long enough to pose for a picture.

4. A group of sophomore girls of Room 317 listen attentively as Sister M. Loretta unfolds an interesting tale.

The English Department plans to provide for high school students both a stimulus and a guide for interesting, correct, and effective speaking and writing.

Since English is a required subject, every student at Central is enrolled in one of the 47 classes held daily. The course covers a period of four years and provides each student with a fundamental skill in language, as well as an interest in the literary field.

There are 13 freshman classes, 12 sophomore classes, 12 junior classes, and 10 senior classes held throughout the day. Courses in journalism, public speaking, and English Literature are open to the Seniors.

The journalism classes are taught the various methods of news gathering and editing. This group publishes the CENTRIC, the official paper of the school. Public speaking classes are open to senior boys, who make a thorough study of Parliamentary Procedure. The Literature groups study both American and English Catholic writers, stressing the works of each.

The English Department is under the supervision of the Ursuline Sisters with Sr. Angela Marie, Sr. M. Austin, Sr. Marie Celine, Sr. M. Grace, Sr. M. Jane, Sr. M. Magdalene, Sr. M. Patricia, Sr. M. Wilhelmina, three Franciscan Sisters, Sr. M. Consilia, Sr. M. Loretta, Sr. M. Winifred, and one lay teacher, Mr. John Bagdonas.

The Centric, Central's school paper, is edited, published, and financed by the Journalism classes. Published every two weeks, the Centric makes an accurate history of student activities.

During the year fourteen issues were published, thus completing the twenty-second year of publication. While staff positions are assigned only to members of the journalism class, the entire student body is encouraged to contribute articles that will be of interest to the school at large.

Heading the Centric Staff in the position of co-editors were James Morrissey and Marigene Valiquette, who were assisted by the associate editors, Doris Langenderfer, Elizabeth Tynan, Vada Fleck, and Donald Heintschel. Francis O'Shea, managing editor, Regina Hauck and Mary Jane Zawodny, copy editors, greatly aided the editors in their work of making the Centric a success.

The victories and defeats of all the football, basketball and baseball games, together with bowling news and all other sporting news were recorded by John Callahan and George Dansack. May Gfell and Patricia Stout were in charge of reporting on girls' sports.

The business staff, headed by Joseph Lotte and assisted by Eileen Bodie, helped make a success of the Centric's ad and subscription campaign. Emily Kulczak was placed in charge of the advertising department, with Bernadine Tafelski, aided by Rosemary Mor and Eleanor Wietrzykowski, in charge of the circulation department.

The Centric is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, the Catholic School Press Association, and the Quill and Scroll.

For the second successive year, the Centric won the All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

Sister Mary Austin, O.S.U., is the faculty adviser.

Centripetal 1942

Centripetal Editors

THIS, the twenty-second edition of the Centripetal, edited and financed by the Senior class, is a pictured remembrance of the students and activities of the school through the year 1941 and 1942. Although a Senior project, this book is of interest to all the classes because, as a mirror, it reflects the lives of all those who participated in school activities during the year, and graphically explains the various departments and organizations of the school.

1. Business, circulation, cashiers, office managers, and typists arrange their work for business transactions.
2. Sports editors check write-ups.
3. Senior editors group material according to classes.
4. Organization editors arrange material in its proper place.
5. Underclass editors place their respective pages.
6. Advertising managers check ads.

Language Department

Sister Rose Agnes' Spanish class of Room 203 looks at Spanish scrapbooks which were made by some of the students.

The second year German students in Room 204 under the supervision of Sister Consilia spend at least twenty minutes every week in singing old German melodies.

The members of the French class of 215 under the direction of Sister Roselma are receiving information on the civilization of France.

SPANISH DEPARTMENT

At Central, through the study of Spanish, the students are not only acquiring a knowledge of the beautiful Castilian language, but are acquiring along with it a knowledge and appreciation of Spain's contribution to humanity and to the Americas in particular, the greater portion of which has received the foundation of its culture and its social structure from Spain.

"El Circulo de Honor", the Spanish Honor Club, whose membership consists of students rating an "A" grade, numbered some forty members this year. Gloria Ashe and Rita Jane Wilhelm were president and vice-president, respectively, of the second year division; and Walter McCauley and Bernice Pudlicki held these offices, respectively, in the first year division. The following have been Honor Club members for two years: Gloria Ashe, Rita Jane Wilhelm, Joanne Rutkowski, John Moan, Jeanne Czubachowski, Thomas Butler, Donald Malikowski, Nancy Warrick, Evelyn Kluczynski.

FRENCH

The purpose of the French course as followed at Central is to teach the students to read the language, to speak it, and to acquaint them with the civilization and the character of the French people. To get a better understanding of French life, the students read short stories, and have the opportunity to see a number of French films. The French department is under the supervision of Sister M. Roselma, O.S.F.

GERMAN DEPARTMENT

In the teaching of German an attempt is made to present to the students the more essential facts determining a nation's character that are unchanged by the ripples on the political surface.

This is accomplished by using material bearing on manners and institutions that last, and cultural information about art, literature and history.

Not only is German studied for its cultural value but it is the most important foreign language for the study of physical sciences as well.

LATIN

As a result of the Latin tests taken at the close of the 1940-41 scholastic year, the Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin presented to Central a Certificate of Superior Merit, "Summa Cum Laude", and five Certificates of Honorable Mention, "Magna Cum Laude."

Joseph Hermiller, a sophomore, was awarded the "Summa Cum Laude" Certificate and a gold medal.

Students awarded "Magna Cum Laude" certificates are: James Morrissey, Timothy Brennan, James Meehan, Sigmund Mierzwiak, and Richard Bernhardt.

The Latin department has 231 girls and 269 boys, and is under the supervision of the Reverend James McGowan, the Rev. Arthur Schmit, Sister M. Alma, S.N.D., Sister M. Casildis, S.N.D., Sister M. Charlotte, S.N.D., and Sister M. Gordian, S.N.D.

5. A few members of the solid geometry class at work on a difficult problem.

The grand total of senior girls absorbing solid geometry is two. This staggering number is duplicated in the trigonometry classes, however. There are 69 boys in these two classes. Think of it, 73 senior students master (or are mastered by) that little red math book.

One of the outstanding features of the Math Department is the publication of the Al-Geo-Trig, issued quarterly. The staff is composed of members of the junior and senior math classes and is headed by Frank Miller and John Gerken.

The Math Department, with its teachers and students, forms a sturdy branch of Central's tree of learning. There are 620 boys and 335 girls studying math, or 66 per cent of the entire student body.

The 471 "Freshies," divided into 15 classes, are taught by Sr. Agnes, Sr. Aquinas, Sr. DeSales, Sr. Teresita, and the Rev. J. D. Shenk.

The seven geometry classes, consisting of 248 sophomores, have Sr. Alberta, Sr. Bede, and Sr. DeSales as instructors.

Juniors taking Advanced Algebra number 138, with Sr. Alberta and Sr. Constantia supervising.

Senior and junior math students.

Science Department

1. A rear view of a physics class watching one of Mr. Fischer's many movies.
2. Junior and Senior chemistry students of Sister Marie Therese's class are enraptured by the miracles of Science.
3. The Biology Club, not always so idle, poses for a picture.
4. One of Sister M. Agatha's biology classes gather some knowledge about the human body.
5. Sister M. Blandina's boys seem to be taking notes about the eye—the eyes have it.

GENERAL SCIENCE

General Science includes the study of air, water, heat, energy, weather, changing earth, magnetics and electrical energy. Phases of Biology, Physiology and Chemistry are also studied.

The class is composed of Freshmen, with the exception of a few upper-classmen. Sister M. DeChantal, O. S. F., and Sister M. Teresita, O. S. F., are the supervisors.

BIOLOGY

In the study of Biology the students are acquainted with plant, animal and human life through the various stages of development. The important life functions and activities of organisms are emphasized. To further their biological knowledge the students perform experiments, do home projects, make diagrams, charts and take field trips.

The Biology classes are under the supervision of Sister M. Agatha, O. S. F., and Sister M. Blandina, O. S. F.

PHYSIOLOGY

The Physiology classes are taught by Sister M. Camillus, O. S. F. In this course the students learn the functions of the organs of the human mechanism. Through Physiology the student gains a more thorough knowledge of health and learns to apply this information in everyday living.

CHEMISTRY

The study of Chemistry not only gives the student an ample store of knowledge, but also an appreciation of the knowledge put to every day use. It trains his memory, instills habits of organization, exactness, truth, patience, honesty, proper attitudes of cooperation, and the correct use of leisure time.

To obtain a better understanding of the laws of Chemistry the students spend two laboratory periods per week in experimental work. Sister Marie Therese, O. S. F. is the supervisor.

PHYSICS

In the study of Physics the student obtains a better understanding of machines, heat, light, sound, and electricity.

One of the main projects of the members of the Physics classes during the year is the writing of a 3000 word term paper.

The classes are under the guidance of Mr. V. C. Fisher.

History Department

The History Department at Central, which is under the supervision of the Sisters of Mercy, embraces the three fields of Ancient, Modern, and American History.

The classes are taught by Sister Mary Austin, Sister Mary Neri, Sister Mary Germaine, Sister Mary Imelda, Sister Mary Genevieve, Sister M. Elaine, O. S. F., Mr. Adolph Tscherne, and Mr. Marvin Sauppe.

The Modern History classes of Rooms 118, 217, 219, under the guidance of Sister Mary Austin, R. S. M., organized the FENWICK CLUB, the purpose of which is to vitalize the study of history, particularly local Catholic history. One of the club's main activities of the year was to locate the grave of the Toledo pioneer, Peter Navarre, in old St. Mary's Cemetery.

Students had to have an average of a "B" in order to be eligible for membership. Those in the club are Marie Biedleman, Margaret Bowman, Thomas Buttler, Aurora Gonzales, Robert Gorny, Rosemary Hayes, Catherine Huber, Angela Kaminski, Elizabeth Kasel, Rosemary Kenny, Mary Ann Klap, Raymond Krabach, Bernadette Lang, Eileen Metty, Lillian Langenderfer, Thomas Liggett, Mary Lois Metzger, Robert Michalak, Sigmund Mierzwiak, William Navarre, Patricia O'Brien, Marian Oswald, Rita M. Pecord, Corinne Pleitz, Anna Mae Plummer, Bernice Pudlicki, Jeanne Recker, Charles Saradin, Gail Schmitt, Rosemarie Serian, Virginia Stout, Gloria Urban, and Robert Zak.

During the last two six weeks periods of the year the Senior American History Classes deviated from this subject to that of Civics. With the assistance of two very fine textbooks, LESSONS IN LIBERTY, by Clarence Manion, professor at Notre Dame University, and OUR GOVERNMENT, by James Wilford Garner, Ph.D., L.L.D., and Louise Capen, Ph.D., the students are familiarizing themselves with the purposes of American government together with its nature, structure, and functions.

1. Father Dunne, moderator of Chi Rho, and officers.
2. Junior and Senior Draftsmen of tomorrow.

Mechanical Drawing Department

THROUGH the generosity of Mr. A. G. Muenzer, an old Curtiss OX-5 V Type 8-cylinder airplane motor was given to the Rev. G. W. E. Dunne to be drawn by the Junior-Senior Drafting class.

Sincere thanks are due to Mr. Muenzer who has presented both the drafting classes and the school in general with many valuable donations toward the education of our Catholic youth.

After dismantling the motor, the separate parts, numbered and identified, were drawn in detail by the students. The elevation drawings were then assigned to the boys as follows:

Plan View.....	Albin Kaminski, Francis Hamernik
Left Elevation.....	Gerard Lykowski
Front Elevation.....	Robert Steinbauer, Arnold Taylor
Rear Elevation—partially cross-sectioned.....	Gerald Blank
Complete Cross Section—two banks.....	James Scheuerman
Right Elevation.....	Robert Serke
Longitudinal Cross-Section.....	Dario Alesi

An additional cross-section was finished by Donald Smith, Thomas O'Brien and Robert Rumpf.

Exceptional work in handling detail and partial assemblies was accomplished by William Muller, Harold Anderson, Andrew Flory, John Ferstle, Dale Frische, Albert Ferris, Joseph Ferraro, Gordon Humphreys, William Scott, Gordon Velker, and Richard Less.

In addition to the work done on the motor, two architectural drawings of note were produced by Albert Ferris and Dale Frische, both drawings being interior perspectives.

According to Father Dunne, the work produced by this year's Junior-Senior Class was exceptional.

Home Economics Department

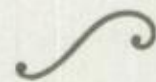

Smiling sophomores seasoning, simmering, soldering, scooping, shelving, stirring, shredding, skewering, and serving in scientific style.

A bit of Home Life and Social Relations.

A unit in house planning and furnishing has resulted in the house around which is grouped the class of builders.

Home Economics

In preparation for the most excellent of professions open to women, the Home Economics two-year course offers three units in the first year. They are: 1) Food study, the planning, preparation and serving of meals. 2) Clothing—the planning and care of a wardrobe, garment construction, and the study of fabrics and good grooming. 3) Household management wherein girls learn the best ways to deal with household problems, and the budgeting of time and energy.

In the second year, Home Nursing, First Aid, House Planning and Furnishings, Personality, Earning and Spending, and Family Relations, are the five units which prepare students of Home Economics to fill their places in the world as fine American Housewives.

Two years of five double periods a week is the time allotted for this course.

Commerce Department

Students of the second period of Sister M. Annelle's first year typing class pause for a pose.

Sister M. Eventia's seventh and eighth period Bookkeeping class balances accounts

BOOKKEEPING

The bookkeeping course is based on the principles of budgeting, business law, taxation and economics. A work-book and two practice sets give the students office experience. In this subject the student acquires information and habits that will be of value to him in everyday life both during and after his school days. Sister M. Eventia, S.N.D., is supervisor.

SHORTHAND

The first year shorthand students, under the supervision of Sister M. Ludonna, S. N. D., use the Functional Method dictating books. The aims of the first year are, rapid reading, perfect penmanship, and the taking of dictation at 80 words per minute.

Three classes of second year shorthand students are under the direction of Sister M. Louis, S. N. D. Every student aims to pass the 100-word Transcription Test before graduation.

TYPEWRITING

Sister M. Annelle, S. N. D., and Sister M. Thomasine, S. N. D., are the supervisors of the first year typing students. The aim of the student is to type from 30 to 40 words per minute with less than five errors. They work up speed by taking time tests, and try to attain both speed and accuracy.

The advanced secretarial classes are under the supervision of Sister M. Louis, S. N. D. The students are trained for direct office procedure. Many students merit gold pins and certificates for the Gregg "CT" (Competent Typist) Tests.

COMMERCIAL CIVICS

Building citizenship is not a mere subject for study, but a "Design for Living." No subject can be more generally appropriate for the student than one which helps him to gain an understanding of his own position and duty in society. The Text book used is interesting and is clearly organized on the Unit Principle. In studying this subject students should realize that it will make them useful citizens. For this reason we concern ourselves with some of the fundamental ideas of the services of the government. Sister M. Thomasine, S. N. D., is supervisor.

The Student Council

The Student Council, under the supervision of the Rev. Joseph D. Shenk and Sister Mary Eventia, S. N. D., aims to direct the students' civic and social activities.

Of the seventy-four members, twenty-six are honorary members. They were former class representatives who proved eligible by meriting a sufficient number of points during the past two or three years.

Color Day, sponsored by the Council, was observed in its usual fashion with a colorful display of scarlet and gray. Tag Day was held November 18, and was concluded with a Thanksgiving Dance on November 19. Outstanding events were the Halloween, Recuperation, Valentine, and Spring Dances held in the auditorium.

Hall patrol and Traffic Officers regulated traffic in the halls and on the stairs. Members ushered at assemblies and at other school activities including the Operetta and the Senior Play. They also served as the reception and registration committees at the Parent-Teacher meeting.

The returns made during the Community Chest Drive are an indication that our Central students are in sympathy with the unfortunates in the community.

The Council chose June 16 as the day of the annual boat trip to Cedar Point.

The Catholic Chronicle Campaign sponsored by the Council surpassed all previous years in subscription returns. The school boasted seventy-three leaders with Patricia Weis, a freshman, at the top.

*SIX MORE SYMBOLS of Irish
Athletic Greatness are Added to Central's Trophy Case.*

Football

JAMES MCCARTHY

As head coach he led the Irish football team through a tough season and ended in second place in the city league race. This is Mr. McCarthy's third year as football coach. He is a Central graduate of 1929.

DOCTOR IVOR COLLINS

A Central graduate who returned to care for the numerous injuries of the team. This is his third year as team physician. A true friend of the pig-skin toters.

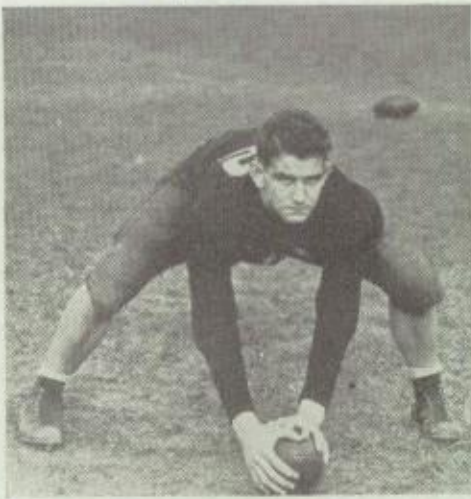

Central's "Fighting Irish" have completed one of the most successful seasons in the school history, racking up seven wins and two losses, and those by one-point margins. The traditional battling spirit of the Irish stood them well, victor or vanquished.

SENIOR GRIDMEN OF THE SCARLET AND GREY

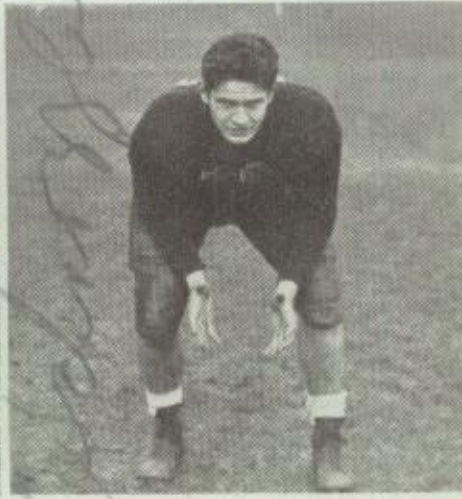

Standing: Dick Dahn, Jim Scheuerman, Frank Miller, Bill O'Connell, Ed Kanney, Harold Hasemeyer, Bernard Hickey. Seated: Ray Kehn, Ned Skeldon, Bob McQuillen, Clem Shubarga, Ed Rihacek, Al Kaminski.

Football

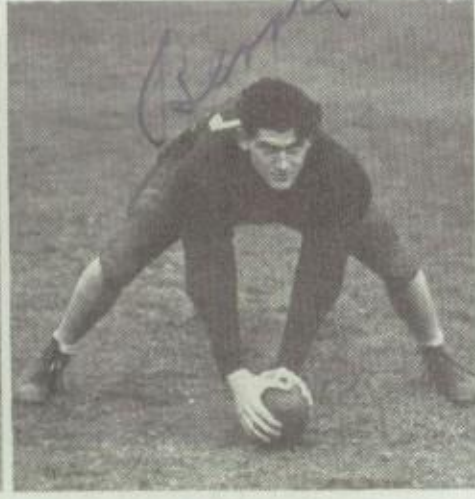

EDWARD (NED) SKELDON

Center, Senior. 160 lbs.
Ned has the ability to open holes on the offensive and the knack to close holes on the defensive.

FRANK (SCHNOZZLE) MILLER

Fullback, Senior. 169 lbs.
One of the best backfield men seen around here in years at the fullback post.

BERNARD (HICK) HICKEY

Center, Senior. 162 lbs.
A true son of the "Fighting Irish" whose centering was as accurate as a bullet out of a gun, but not as hard.

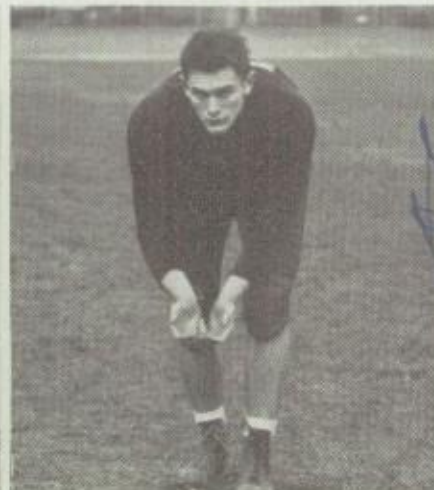

EDWARD (PUNCHIE) RIHACEK

Quarterback, Senior. 150 lbs.
When Punchie blocked out any incoming lineman he was a proverbial tiny stick of dynamite.

LEWIS (TUFFY) SCORZIELL

Guard, Senior. 165 lbs.
The rougher the game the better Tuffy played. His joviality as well as his fighting spirit will be missed next year.

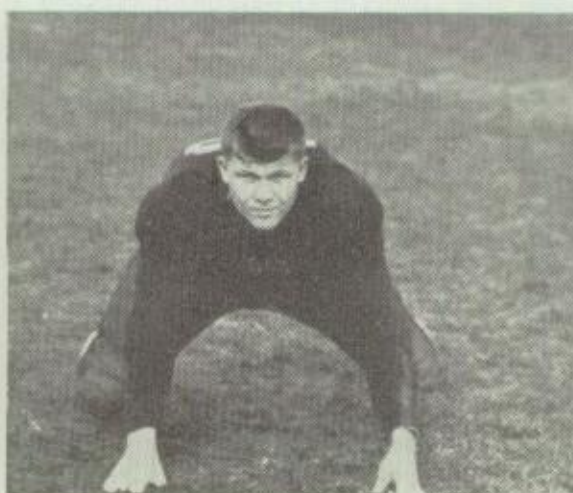

HAROLD (HASIE) HASEMEYER

Halfback, Senior. 187 lbs.
Two men were always needed to stop this battering ram that smashed lines like toothpicks. The tallest member of the "Three Horsemen."

EDWARD (STREAMLINE) KANNEY

Tackle, Senior. 212 lbs.
Ed would hit that line and nothing could stop him. A valuable asset will go with him.

RAY (AUGIE) FELT

Tackle, Junior. 196 lbs.
One of the mainstays of the team which will help the squad carry on the traditions of the "Fighting Irish."

WILLIAM (PAT) AUBRY

Guard, Junior. 175 lbs.
Bill could stop anything that was coming his way, even a truck. Another asset to bolster the Irish next year.

Ray

RAY (SWEAT SOCKS) KEHN
Guard, Senior. 165 lbs.

An injury in early fall practice prevented Ray from playing all year but every day he was out for practice.

Football

Dick

RICHARD (SPEED) CALMES
Halfback, Junior. 141 lbs.

One of the fastest men on the team. His speed made opponents wonder what makes him go.

Clem practiced his bowling by using the opposing ends as head pins. The second member of the "Tuffy-Shoes Antic Team."

AUGUST (GUS) MUENZER
Tackle, Junior. 160 lbs.

A lot is expected of this lad in the forthcoming Irish pig-skin parade.

ALBIN (STONE) KAMINSKI
Quarterback, Senior. 164 lbs.

His head must have been hard to take the punishment it did, but in no way did it hinder his thinking ability to call plays.

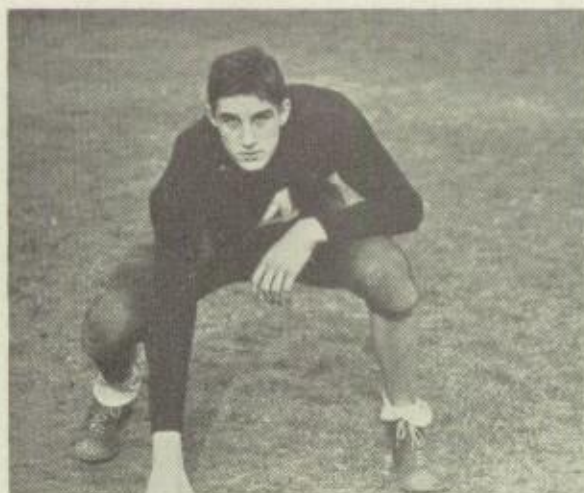

JOSEPH (STRETCH) COLLINS
End, Junior. 154 lbs.

Joe is a fine pass receiver and a great defensive man, but his playing was cut short by an injury. See you next year.

Joe

"Red"

WILLIAM (CURLEY) O'CONNELL
End, Senior. 145 lbs.

Bill made the team in his last scholastic year because of his determination to play and to show his fighting spirit.

KENNETH (KENNIE) MILLER
Tackle, Junior. 170 lbs.

Nothing could be said against this fine player who never questioned orders, only obeyed them.

RICHARD (RED) HARMON
Guard, Junior. 175 lbs.

Red is a willing aggressor to anyone who tries to pass his post. The coach will be glad to see Red next year.

One of the Irish's "Three Horsemen." A triple threat back that opposing linemen had a hard time stopping.

Enjoyed roaming in the opponents' backfield and stopped many a touch-down play. Nice going, Dick.

BASKETBALL

Under the expert guidance of Coach Adolph Tscherne, the Irish Basketball Squad of 41-42 blazed a glorious trail in the annals of Central's history. They stand, a shining example of Catholic sportsmanship that will never be dimmed by the ravages of time.

After leading the city races all season, the Irish were overcome by Woodward, who tied Central for the city championship. In the district tournament at the Fieldhouse, Central met Woodward in the finals and the Irish emerged City and District champions. Continuing in aggressive fashion, Central went on to win the Regional title. Advancing to the state finals, the Irish fought valiantly but were overcome by Xenia Central.

Dutch

MR. ADOLPH TSCHERNE

A vote of thanks is due to Coach Tscherne for the great record that he and his boys made. This is the second year that "Dutch" held the reins of the basketball team. He is a graduate of Central, class of '34.

MR. JOHN BAGDONAS

As head lightweights coach Mr. Bagdonas proved to be an inspiration to the team as they fought with the true fighting spirit of the Irish. Mr. Bagdonas was also head line coach of the pigskin toters. His ability didn't go unnoticed as two members of the team were All-City.

The "Fighting Irish" basketball team of Central is pictured here with the trophies won in the tournament at the University Field House. Each boy received a trophy. McQuillen, Skeldon and Gilhooley were named on the all-city team, and Gilhooley was awarded a cup for being "the best all-around player" in the tournament.

BOWLING

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Led by Captain Clem Shubarga, one of the greatest bowlers in Central's history, the Americans captured the City and District Championships by winning 51 of 57 contests. Members of the Championship team are Clem Shubarga, Richard Perz, Ray Kehn, Bernard Restivo, Eugene Czarnecki, and Sam Cangiamilla.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

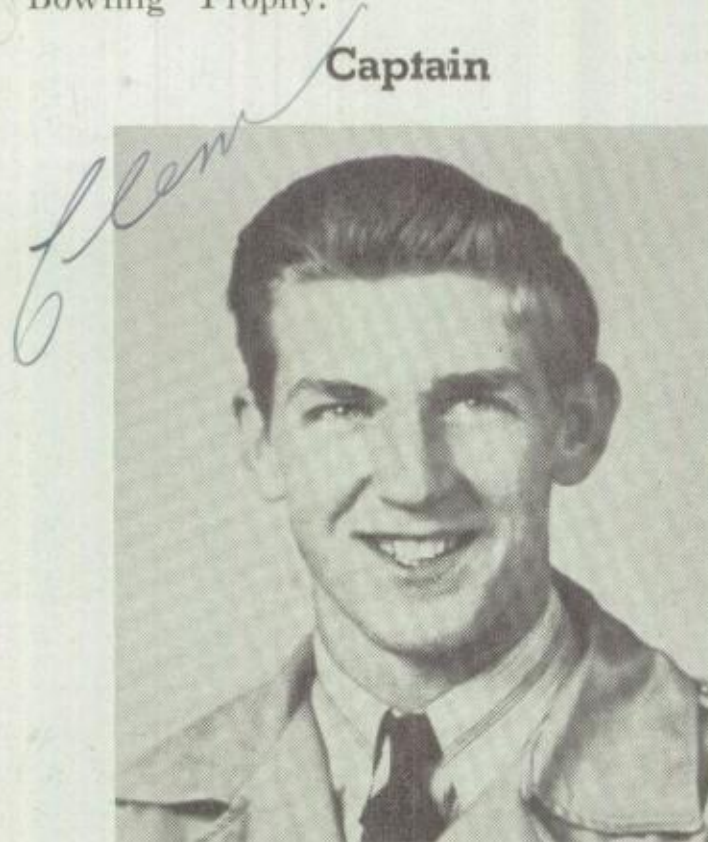

The National League team, captained by Dick Reed, concluded a successful season by landing in third place in the race. Members of the team are Dick Reed, Thomas O'Connor, Ed Lavey, Paul Johnson, George Pongonis, and Andy Kaminski.

Under the guidance of the Reverend Arthur T. Schmidt, the Irish pinsters completed another successful season, capturing the City Championship. It was the first time in Central's history that an Irish bowling team won both City and District roll-offs. Led by Captain Shubarga, the team won 51 out of 57 league games clinching the city title, then proceeded in defeating Libbey in the District finals, 2778 to 2537, more than enough to win, giving Central its first District Bowling Trophy.

The team received a regulation bowling pin donated by Mr. Larry Gazzola and each member also received a gold medal donated by the Toledo Blade, sponsor of the league. Mr. Ted Keller, secretary of the High School League, presented Clement Shubarga with a gold bowling ball for his 278 single game and a gold medal for the 710 three-game series.

Bowlers who received monograms this year are Eugene Czarnecki, Richard Perz, Paul Johnson, George Pongonis, Richard Reed, Clement Shubarga, Francis Sosko, Raymond Kehn, Bernard Restivo, and Richard Zielinski.

MINOR SPORTS

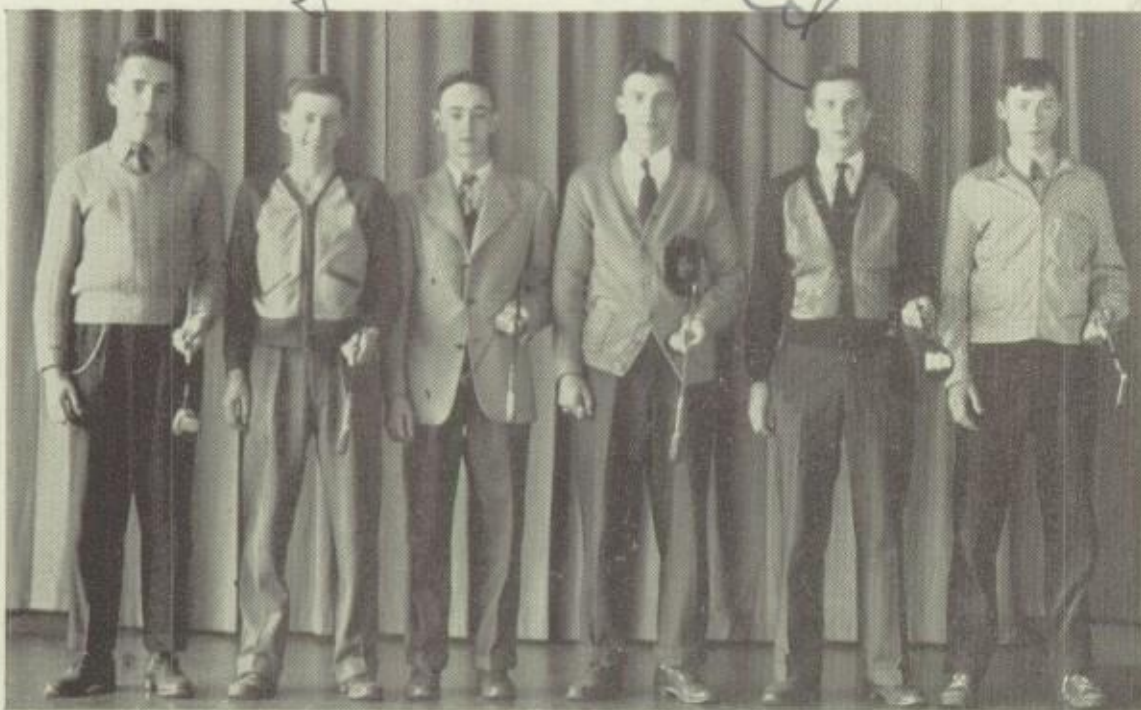

Baseball

Nine returning veterans bolstered Coach Maurice Connell's 41 - 42 baseball squad. The Irish presented to their city league opponents a team composed of a well-balanced infield supported by an alert outfield and quite a few capable pitchers. Hard practice enabled the team to gain many victories.

Standing: Richard Dahn, Bern Hickey, Richard Naugle, William O'Connell, Ned Skeldon, Frank Gilhooley, Bob McQuillen, and Coach Maurice Connell.

Kneeling: John Howard, James DeMars, Harry Yaeckel, Clem Shubarga, and James Betty.

Golf

This year's golf team captained by Tom Corbett, played their city league opponents on the Ottawa Park golf course. The sextet of Frank Sexton, Tom Corbett, Harold Mensing, Jack Stalder, Captain Ed Naber and Pat Kennedy, would prove stiff opposition to any sextet on any course.

Tennis

Coach Clarence Lindenberg's netmen proved to be a group of boys whose teamwork gave opponents the jitters. The team was composed of William Carol, Paul Johnson, Paul Stutz, John Ruppel, Coach Lindenberg, James Kuebler, Richard Less, Will Hamel, George Koerber, Charles Johnston, and Bob Mulherin.

Girls' Athletic League

The Girls' Athletic League, now under the supervision of Miss Frances Dunigan, was organized thirteen years ago in order to provide recreation and to promote sportsmanship. Several playdays were held throughout the year and many girls from each period participated in tournaments of basketball, volleyball, and hit pin. There are seventy girls now enrolled in the G. A. L. This year's athletic program has been enlarged over those of previous years. Games were played at the meetings and the winning team received a cake. Refreshments were served by appointed committees.

Officers of the Girls' Athletic League are:

Jeanne Keogh.....	President
Anna Mae Plummer.....	Vice-President
Constance Osborne.....	Secretary
Theresa Bellner.....	Treasurer

The gym classes this year are under the direction of Miss Frances Dunigan. She received her schooling here at Central and then went to Toledo University for four years in order to obtain her degree. While at Central, she received a monogram each year for outstanding work in athletics and in her senior year, she was Girls' Sports Editor on the Centric Staff.

GIRLS' SPORTS

BOWLING

Under Miss Dunigan's direction, bowling teams were organized by various groups. Eighteen teams, all of which have their favorite names, have been formed and keen competition between them has been encouraged by Miss Dunigan. These teams meet weekly at the Auditorium where the two teams, the "Whose-Its" and the "Rockets" are now leading. The six highest scores are:

Eileen Bodie	176
Rita Powers	164
Marigene Valiquette	152
Margie Flynn	145
Dorothy Girard	143
Barbara Cannon	139

Barbara Cannon is in the act of shooting while other members of the gym classes await their turns.

OTHER SPORTS

With the coming of a new gym instructor many new forms of sports have been introduced to all the gym classes. Along with the games of former years are now included ping pong, dart games, and shuffleboard. In the fall of the year, games were conducted outside on the football field by Miss Dunigan. Baseball was also played outside and instructions in tennis were given in the spring by Miss Dunigan.

Miss Dunigan and a few members of the G. A. L. pose with some of the equipment used in various games.

The two highest bowling teams pause for a rest before resuming competition.

The number of letters awarded during the year has been enlarged and at least twenty letters will be presented to the girls receiving the highest number of points. An all around Athlete's Trophy will be given to the girl with the highest number of points. The awards will be presented by Miss Dunigan at the last formal meeting of the year.
